Introducing Prevention Perspectives, a new webinar series brought to you by SAFE Project. Each session will feature discussions on different topics within the field.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

RECOGNIZE

early signs of stress, mental health challenges, or substance use risk that may arise during the school year.

EXPLORE

the role of schools, families and communities in fostering supportive environments for students.

IDENTIFY

protective factors that support student well-being during the back-to-school transition.

LEARN

strengths-based prevention strategies to build connection, resilience, and healthy coping skills.
